In these busy days people of all ages and occupations are cramped for time. Discretionary time for reading and devotions is severely limited. GODMOMENTS FOR WOMEN is designed to fit into readers' busy schedules by offering "bite-sized" devotions that can be read in a few minutes only. Often a short thought can stick with you and kick around in your mind in the spare moments of your day. That's what these books are intended to accomplish. GODMOMENTS FOR WOMEN offers devotions with a quick daily burst of inspiration. This book discusses fifteen blessings that God gives to each and every Christian at the very moment that we pray a sinner's prayer and accept Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior. This book is designed in short and easy-to-read chapters for those on the go. It is designed to bless and encourage the so-called average Christian. Spiritual direction for today's spiritual seeker from the wisdom of the Hasidic rabbis. Meet God in a quiet moment God moments are all around us. We just have to learn to recognize them! A God moment occurs when God makes a certain point of letting us know He's alive and involved in our lives. In this second volume, the GABC Women's

Ministry writers of www.encouraging.com share new real life stories of God's love and grace in their lives throughout this yearlong daily devotional book. By journeying with them, you'll see how God continuously reveals Himself to His people. Then you can be more aware of your own God moments! Pastor and popular Bible teacher Sheryl Brady helps Christians prepare for, recognize, and cultivate the powerful yet easily overlooked moments when God shows up in their lives. Everyone experiences God moments, times when God pulls back the curtain and gives a glimpse of his active presence in their lives. Most of us operate under the misapprehension that these moments are rare occurrences that reveal themselves in grand fashion. We expect bells ringing, lights flashing, and neon signs that point to earthshaking revelations. But God often speaks in whispers, strategically and incrementally unveiling his plans, preparations, and purposes through the most unassuming circumstances. The key is to learn how to prepare for, recognize, and be faithful in these moments. In Don't Miss the Moment, Pastor Sheryl Brady reminds Christians that God is real and unwaveringly present in our daily lives. Through biblical teaching and personal stories of God showing up in times of need, she shows how to pursue deeper relationship with the Faithful One so that we can learn to hear his voice and feel his leading, discern when we are in a defining moment, and redirect our hearts and lives toward his plans and purposes. Provides fifty-eight brief prayers, each accompanied by a Scripture reading. It is hard to understand why a prostitute retires and yet becomes a mother of children, even to the extent of applying family planning contraceptives, but a virgin got married and had to wait for years just to have a child. It is difficult to comprehend why an unbeliever prospers in his ways, yet with all your connection to the Almighty God, things get so difficult. Find out why and how to cope. Pastor Alan Wright has uncovered a refreshing truth that will revolutionize your faith ... and your life. It's simple. It's biblical. It's powerful. He calls it The God Moment Principle. Where do you seek God? Are you waiting for him to appear in a monumental, life-altering event? In God Moments, Catholic blogger Andy Otto shows you how to discover the unexpected beauty of God's presence in the story of ordinary things and in everyday routines like preparing breakfast or walking in the woods. Drawing on the Ignatian principles of awareness, prayer, and discernment, Otto will help you discover the transforming power of God's presence in your life and better understand your place in the world. Andy Otto found God's presence in surprising moments during his life—when, as a Jesuit scholastic, he taught children in Jamaica and also as he discerned the call to marriage with his wife. By combining elements of Ignatian spirituality with the lessons that came from his experiences, Otto identified three practices that helped him find God in all things: Awareness—Gain an understanding that God is present in the ordinary messiness of our lives such as battle with depression or sharing in the struggle of a friend. Prayer—Develop a prayer life using Ignatian practices such as asking for a morning grace and examining how your prayer was answered at the end of the day. That way you can focus on a personal relationship with God that finds everyday physical activities such as making a meal as an opportunity to talk to him. Discernment—The more you are aware of God's presence and draw closer to him in prayer, the better you can learn how to plug into God's narrative of the world in a way that enables you to participate in the divine story through the use of your gifts and talents. With God Moments as a guide, you'll have a better understanding of how to seek personal wholeness in the reality of God's presence in the ordinary and learn to accept his invitation to participate in his transformation of the world. There are days when our faith feels challenged on every front - and in those times our hearts need reminded that God is with us and for us. This daily devotional will give you little glimpses of God's grace and the spiritual hug you need, renewing your mind to the truth that God is in the details of every breath you take. Throughout this book readers will learn interesting and insightful facts about biblical culture and customs and be shown the practical application to their lives. At the end of the book are five questions for each chapter which refer to the Bible or challenge readers' personal walk with the Lord. In this book, Kathy Coffey shows how our relationship to God can be expressed in a variety of ways. Prayer styles differ according to people's temperaments and so throughout the book, Coffey presents questions for reflection and prayer prompts - spurs to making each day spiritually rich. Looking back, you see it: He was there, He moved. Your life changed ... in a moment. John Alan Wright on a joyful treasure hunt to uncover the God Moments within your own life history--even if you didn't notice them as they happened. As you learn to recognize God's direct intervention in your life, you'll walk with renewed faith in His loving, active care. One of the country's greatest Bible scholars reveals the very different God envisioned by early Israelites. Ulrich L. Lehner reintroduces Christians to the true God—not the polite, easygoing, divine therapist who doesn't ask much of us, but the Almighty God who is unpredictable, awe-inspiring, and demands our entire lives. Stripping away the niceties with a sling blade, Lehner shows that God is more strange and beautiful than we imagine, and wants to know and transform us in the most intimate way.

With his iconoclastic new book God Is Not Nice, Lehner, one of the most promising young Catholic theologians in America, challenges the God of popular culture and many of our churches and reintroduces the God of the Bible and traditional Christianity. As Lehner writes in the book's introduction, "We all need the vaccine of the true transforming and mysterious character of God: The God who shows up in burning bushes, speaks through donkeys, drives demons into pigs, throws Saul from his horse, and appears to St. Francis. It's only this God who has the power to challenge us, change us, and make our lives dangerous. He sweeps us into a great adventure that will make us into different people." This book is not safe. It may startle and annoy many people—including those who purport to teach and preach the Gospel, but are missing it, according to Lehner. God Is Not Nice intends to overthrow all of our popular misconceptions about God, inviting us to ask deeper questions about the nature of our lives and our relationship with him. When you're finished with God Is Not Nice, you may find the idols you constructed in God's name smashed, replaced with a God who will ask you to live an entirely different life full of hope and transformation. This book is written to help, shape, form, and foster a personal relationship with the Lord Jesus Christ. Through spending quality time with our Savior and Lord, it is how and why the believer grows and develops a personal solid, sound, and strong relationship.

Relationships are built and develop from spending quality time with the person who you love the most. If a person truly loves God, He/she will spend that quality time with Him. Someone stated, Time is money and losing time is losing money. The blessings will not flourish or multiply, unless the individual spends quality and meaningful time with the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. The fact of the matter is that Lord Jesus Christ is the Blessor, and a person should have a need, desire, and want to spend time with the one who blesses him/her. Spending quality time with the Lord Jesus Christ is dedicating and committing to worship, prayer, and studying His word. It is not about reading or quoting scriptures, but mediating and fellowship with Him. Having A Moment with God is about spending a committed and dedicated time with the Lord Jesus Christ on a daily and consistent, continuous, and constant basis. Psalm 1:2, But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night. A Moment with God is about delighting, which indicates that a person must spend time, cleave, and commit to worship, prayer, and mediating on His word. There is no secret to knowing, loving, and worshiping God, because these things happen when a person abides in Him and He abides in him/her (John 15:7) If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, and it shall be done unto you. The word abide means to set up residence or dwelling in the midst of. Through spending A Moment with God, it is asking, requesting, and praying for the ultimate worship, fellowship, and praise to take course, which is the ultimate resolution of God dwelling in the midst of. This is when a person knows that God is doing more than listening and answering prayers; he is actually dwelling within the person. Hopefully, through this book, A Moment with God: Devotional Book, the individual will develop, learn, and gather principles and concepts of significance value for spending quality time with God that will develop and foster a productive and positive relationship that will yield results. This is my prayer and hope. We've all had "aha!" moments in our lives, times when a sudden revelation surprises us with insight. According to pastor and bestselling author Kyle Idleman, we can experience this same kind of "aha!" in our spiritual lives. With everyday examples and trademark testimonies, Idleman draws on Scripture to reveal how three key elements can draw us closer to God and change our lives for good. Awakening to the reality of our true spiritual condition, we see ourselves and our need for a Savior with renewed honesty. This realization leads to action, obeying God's commands and following the example set by Christ. As we see in the transformation of the prodigal son, the result is a life-changing, destiny-altering collision—an AHA moment that leads us home to our loving Father. This guide helps find God in all your relationships. Readers will become more attentive to the way the spirit leads them and perceive more clearly God's presence and action in the world by considering their relationships as the very places in which they daily experience God's guidance. There's a strong biblical connection between people and trees. They both come from dirt. They're both told to bear fruit. In fact, arboreal language is so often applied to humans that it's easy to miss, whether we're talking about family trees, passing along our seed, cutting someone off like a branch, being rooted to a place, or bearing the fruit of the Spirit. It's hard to deny that trees mean something, theologically speaking. This book is in many ways a memoir, but it's also an attempt to wake up the reader to the glory of God shining through his creation. One of the first commands to Adam and Eve was to "work and keep" the garden. Award-winning author and songwriter Andrew Peterson, being as honest as possible, shares a story of childhood, grief, redemption, and peace, by walking through a forest of memories: "I trust that by telling my story, you'll encounter yours. Hopefully, like me, you'll see that the God of the Garden is and has always been present, working and keeping what he loves." Sometimes he plants, sometimes he prunes, but in his goodness he intends to reap a harvest of righteousness. Enjoying life (zoe) in Christ comes in the choices we make moment-by-moment. Transparently sharing her struggles with anxiety, fear, and insecurity, Ginger Harrington invites women to discover how intentional choices made in the moment can become holy habits that open the door to healing and freedom. With a refreshing perspective, she shows that holiness isn't a rigid standard to keep but a gift to receive through a vital relationship with God, who makes us whole. Holy in the Moment explores the practical power of choices to grow in holiness without the pressure of perfectionism. Through gentle encouragement, biblical insights, and applicable ideas learn to discern feelings and overcome distractions and shame, adapt God's equation for obedience, live a praying life, discover methods for practicing holiness in parenting and the importance of rest, embrace biblical love and forgiveness, and understand how work becomes holy. Find healing and wholeness with simple choices to love God, embrace truth, and enjoy every moment of life with practical ways to be holy by choosing to trust God, rely on his wisdom, and live from his resources. Deepen your spiritual life in 2015 using this simple devotional, filled with short readings of classic Catholic wisdom and spiritual practice. This book includes a daily reflection, phrases from Holy Scripture, and brief prayers. In these busy days people of all ages and occupations are cramped for time. Discretionary time for reading and devotions is severely limited. GODMOMENTS FOR MEN is designed to fit into readers' busy schedules by offering "bite-sized" devotions that can be read in a few minutes only. Often a short thought can stick with you and kick around in your mind in the spare moments of your day. That's what these books are intended to accomplish. GODMOMENTS FOR MEN offers devotions with a quick daily burst of inspiration. After being diagnosed with Hodgkins lymphoma, I went through a rough time when I had to depend on God for everything. I kept a journal on my daily condition and what the doctors would tell me. I spent 6 months in a rehabilitation and nursing home trying to get strong enough to take chemo to help with the lymphoma. This will explain a little of what that two year period of my life meant to me.. Whether we are carrying out routine life behaviors, trying to pray, or conversing with others, the way our minds work significantly impacts how well we function. But many times we may feel like our mind has a mind of its own. -- You fall into bed exhausted at the end of the day, craving a good night's sleep, only to have your mind race in a million directions. -- Prayer is an exercise in futility, full of distractions and wandering thoughts. -- In the midst of a conversation, you suddenly realize you haven't heard a word the other person has said.-- You arrive at a destination with no recollection of how you got there. These all-too-common occurrences are examples of how our minds can seem to be completely out of our control. We end up merely going through the motions day after day, feeling anxious and preoccupied. But it doesn't have to be that way. Dr. Greg Bottaro explains how mindfulness can help us become aware of the present moment and accept it. Catholic mindfulness is a way to practically trust God more in our lives. Instead of separating faith from day-to-day life, mindfulness helps bridge the gap so we can feel the sense of safety and peace God intends us to have. Following the simple exercises in this book, you'll discover how mindfulness can help you be more present to everything in your life from a trip to the grocery store or relaxing with friends to listening more attentively to a homily or meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary. Life is busy. It's hard to find a moment to ourselves, a moment to think, to pray, and to connect with God. Yet the busier we are, the more we need that moment when we can take breath and remember that we are not in this world alone. Unlike your typical devotional, with a reading for each day of the year, moments with God is timeless. You can read one page each day or use the index to find a topic that speak to your life at that moment. Over and over, you will find words of comfort to share with friends or loved ones who may be facing a crisis. Moments with God overflows with encouragement and inspiration. On each page, you will find a message of hope and love that will lift your heart toward heaven. Bound in a beautifully illustrated padded cover, this insightful devotional draws readers into God's Word and encourages them in their daily walks. The eye-catching interior includes a Scripture verse, a selection from Kay's bestselling "His Imprint, My Expression," and a place for women to write their reflections. This is a book of profound spirituality that the 18th century author did not know he had written. It was compiled and published over a century after his death by Visitation nuns who, fortunate for the world, saved his letters and conference notes. What is a God moment? It's an encounter with the King, where Hell replace your sorrow with a song of praise to sing. What's the purpose of God moments? That's a question you might ask. It's to give your all to Almighty God and in His glorious presence, bask! This brand-new prayer collection is designed for those "everyday moments" in your life—the tired moments, the stressed-out moments, the joyful moments, the tearful moments, the peaceful and chaotic moments. . . . Dozens of practical and encouraging prayers, complemented by related scripture selections, will inspire you to strengthen your heart-connection to the heavenly Father. God really does care about every moment in your life! Prayers for every day, every day. Each of the pocket- or purse-sized books in the A Moment with God series provides 58 brief prayers that can be read in a few short minutes at any time of day. Each prayer features Scripture for reflection and is appropriate for personal or group devotion. A Moment with God books -- offer prayers for daily life situations -- address common concerns and needs -- make ideal gifts! Unity minister Linda Martella-Whitsett provides a new framework for thinking about prayer that will revolutionize the lives of readers everywhere. The good news here is that you can pray without believing in God; that you can have a rich and fulfilling spiritual practice without adhering to a set of creeds or dogmas. Martella-Whitsett encourages seekers to look within rather than outside themselves for a God in the sky, for the spark of the divine that is at the core of their being. How to Pray Without Talking to God shows how to develop a true spiritual practice by: re-forming the words of traditional prayers; cultivating a habit of daily prayer and meditation; learning how to pray with others. How To Pray Without Talking To God is filled with the author's stories of her own evolving understanding of God. Each chapter includes a section called "Talk to Yourself" that poses questions for readers to write about or share in a study circle. Do you desire to draw near to God? Discover fresh biblical insights and renew your spirit as you journey through more than 150 new devotions for women by popular author Grace Fox. These gems of godly wisdom focus on God's faithfulness and reflect on His power, presence, and promises in your life today. You will experience practical encouragement as you savor multifaceted chapters like: Motorbikes and Leather Loving Naomi The Power of Three Little Words When Life Doesn't Make Sense Will You Help Me, Please? These engaging devotions for women allow you to draw near to God as you develop a greater appreciation for how God's truth is woven throughout all of your days and deepen your trust in Him to provide for all of your tomorrows. Everyone has seasons, days, even moments in life when hardship sets in and help is needed just to make it through each day. In this beautiful gift book Promises from God for Life's Hard Moments, bestselling author Holley Gerth provides hope and help for just those times. She shares fifty-two promises from God's Word, each with a devotion and prayer, offering comfort, strength, guidance, and assurance that God is present and His love remains strong. Edward Schillebeeckx (1914-) is a prominent Catholic theologian, remarkable for having survived three inquiries into his possible heresy by the Vatican. He explores traditional Catholic concepts in the light of twentieth century understanding and is committed to working out a satisfactory statement of the relationship between the Church and the world. God is New Each Moment presents a series of interviews, at once inspiring, provocative and illuminating, between Schillebeeckx and fellow theologians Huub Oosterhuis and Piet Hoogeveen. If there is something, anything, that gets between you and God, then whatever it is, it needs to be cut away. It needs a scalpel moment. ~ Dr. Benjamin Reaves Is there something in your life you'd be better off without? A relationship causing you pain? Circumstances pressing you down? Something separating you from your Maker? Maybe you need a scalpel moment. This is not a book about medical care, but spiritual care. A description and prescription of those times when God steps in-like a skilled surgeon-and cuts something from our life. While it may be painful at the time, and may even cause us to question God's love, a scalpel moment is actually an act of grace. The painful truth is that many of our lives are overgrown with the unimportant. So seize this opportunity, this scalpel moment, and allow the Great Physician to not just cut out what needs to be removed but, with creative power and grace, fill you with faith and trust. The question is, will you allow God to remove what holds you back? "And after you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you." 1 Peter 5:10
