Una tragica perdita. Un viaggio disperato. Una madre in cerca della verità. Nel dicembre del 1377 quattro bambini sono stati bruciati vivi nell'incendio di una casa. Gli abitanti del villaggio hanno viaggiato per centinaia di chilometri attraverso l'Inghilterra per chiedere giustizia per le morti dei loro figli. Peccatori è la storia di questo viaggio nel cuore dell'inverno, visto da Mear, una ex suora che è vissuta per un decennio travestita da uomo muto, crescendo suo figlio nel silenzio in questo villaggio isolato. Per anni ha nascosto se stessa e tutta la sua storia. Ma in questo viaggio lei troverà la forza per riscattare una promessa del suo passato. Mear inizia questo viaggio nella paura e nello struggimento e lo finisce in trionfo e nella trascendenza. Il nuovo straordinario romanzo di Ned Hayes, illustrato dall'illustratrice di bestseller del New York Times Nikki McClure, Peccatori chiarisce l'epoca medievale con profondo acume e compassione. Nominato per il "Pacific Northwest Booksellers Award" e recensito favorevolmente dalle scrittrici di bestseller storici Karen Maitland, Brenda Vantrease, Kathryn Le Veque e Ella March Chase. "La storia di un pellegrino degna di Chaucer, evocativa... tratteggiata con abilità da un maestro del racconto". -- Brenda Vantrease, autrice di bestseller del New York Times "Brillante... opera d'arte... appassionante, accessibile, e forte. Fortemente raccomandato" -- Kathryn Le Veque, autrice di bestseller per USA Today "Brillantemente concepito e magnificamente realizzato. È n piacere leggerlo". -- Booklist (Starred Review) First-rate world-building from a writer gifted with soaring imagination and good old-fashioned Sense of Wonder. — C.J. Cherryh A romantic and intellectually sexy gender discussion wrapped up in a compelling novel. — J. M. Frey, Lambda Literary Award reviews Poised on the brink of war, the people of the planet Bandar are stunned by the arrival of a disabled Terran space ship. But the Terrans are even less prepared to understand the politics, gender fluidity, or mob reflexes of the natives. The Terran captain uses increasing force as the only way to ensure desperately needed repairs. Hoping to bring enlightened human values to the natives, a young scientist's intervention leads to disaster. After a vicious assault, a pregnant native becomes radicalized. A failed poet sees the Terran occupation as a way to gain the recognition he craves. A widow whose farm is bombed using Terran weaponry journeys to the capital in search of help and ends up facing a firing squad. And a reporter becomes the voice of the resistance, determined to take back his world from the invaders... As violence escalates, the fate of both peoples rests with those who have suffered the most. Can they find a way to forgiveness . . . and peace? Lambda Literary Award Finalist James Tiptree, Jr. Award 2014 Long List Davide Bertinotti e Massimo Faraggi, tra i massimi esperti italiani di birra fatta in casa e artigianale, in questo libro hanno selezionato oltre 90 ricette per realizzare nella propria cucina i più diversi e apprezzati stili birrari, dalle Lager alle Ale inglesi, dalle IPA ai Lambic. Tutte le ricette sono state premiate in concorsi birrari e includono sia birre strettamente aderenti allo stile presentato sia "interpretazioni" più libere, comunque testate e approvate da esperti giudici degustatori. Per ogni stile è presente la descrizione completa tratta dalla revisione 2021 del BJCP (Beer Judge Certification Program), ossia il disciplinare, elaborato dall'omonimo comitato internazionale, che descrive e definisce ogni stile birrario in termini tecnici e organolettici, e che è alla base delle più importanti competizioni amatoriali e commerciali in tutto il mondo. Completa il volume un compatto ma esauriente manuale pratico sulla tecnica di preparazione di base, che permette di realizzare le ricette anche a chi non abbia (ancora!) comprato il più completo manuale La tua birra fatta in casa scritto dagli stessi autori. This Italian reference grammar provides students, teachers and others interested in the Italian language with a comprehensive, accessible and jargon-free guide to the forms and structure of Italian. Whatever their level of knowledge of the language, learners of Italian will find this book indispensable: it gives clear and detailed explanations of everything from the most elementary facts such as the relation between spelling and pronunciation, or the forms of the article, to more advanced points such as the various nuances of the subjunctive. Formal or archaic discourse is distinguished from informal, everyday usage, and regionalisms are also indicated where appropriate. The authors have taken care to make it an easy and illuminating reference tool: extensive cross-referencing enables readers to quickly find the information they require, and also stimulates them to discover new, related facts. The concluding volume to the first biography of one of the most important, influential, and beloved twentieth-century sculptors, and one of the greatest artists in the cultural history of America--is a vividly written, illuminating account of his triumphant later years. The second and final volume of this magnificent biography begins during World War II, when Calder--known to all as Sandy--and his wife, Louisa, opened their home to a stream of artists and writers in exile from Europe. In the postwar decades, they divided their time between the United States and France, as Calder made his first monumental public sculptures and received blockbuster commissions that included Expo '67 in Montreal and the 1968 Olympics in Mexico City. Jed Perl makes clear how Calder's radical sculptural imagination shaped the minimalist and kinetic art movements that emerged in the 1960s. And we see, as well, that through everything--their ever-expanding friendships with artists and writers of all stripes; working to end the war in Vietnam; hosting riotous dance parties at their Connecticut home; seeing the "mobile," Calder's essential artistic invention, find its way into Webster's dictionary--Calder and Louisa remained the risk-taking, singularly bohemian couple they had been since first meeting at the end of the Roaring Twenties. The biography ends with Calder's death in 1976 at the age of seventy-eight--only weeks after an encyclopedic retrospective of his work opened at the Whitney Museum in New York--but leaves us with a new, clearer understanding of his legacy, both as an artist and a man. "Davide Bertinotti e Massimo Faraggi, già autori del bestseller La tua birra fatta in casa, per questo libro - che ne è il naturale complemento - hanno selezionato, revisionato e messo a punto svariate ricette per realizzare nella propria cucina i più diversi e apprezzati stili birrari. Ricette collaudatissime, visto che sono state selezionate fra quelle premiate nei concorsi di homebrewing degli ultimi dieci anni curate dal MoBI, il Movimento Birrario Italiano. Esse comprendono sia ricette in piena aderenza allo stile presentato, sia "interpretazioni" più libere, tutte comunque testate e approvate da esperti giudici degustatori. Per ogni stile birrario è presente inoltre la descrizione completa tratta dal BJCP (Beer Judge Certification Program), ossia il disciplinare, elaborato dall'omonimo comitato internazionale, che descrive e definisce ogni stile in termini tecnici e organolettici, e che è alla base delle più importanti competizioni birrarie sia amatoriali sia commerciali in tutto il mondo.
